

Former Village Woman Cited

News of the death of Mrs. Claude Freed, former Villager.

was received in a wire to the Frank Camps.

Mrs. Freed died in Salt Lake City on November 18 and is survived by two sons, Charles and Richard, both living in that city.

Mrs. Freed and her husband, who died in 1948, first came to Palm Springs in 1936 and had a home on Tamarisk.

Dr. Hechter Attends Medical Meeting

Dr. Mitchell Hechter of Palm Springs was in San Francisco last week to attend the session of the College of Physicians and Surgeons Thursday and Friday at which the latest developments in dental science and dental medicine were discussed. Many dental leaders addressed the sessions.

Snow in the mountains... sunshine in the desert... and the final day of Thunderbird's Annual Women's Invitational Tournament... Eighteen-year-old Mickey Wright won first honors and Gloria Fecht second... Wednesday night four hundred people gathered in the dining room at Thunderbird Country Club... with the soft refrains of the guitar... played by the one and only Tex Kiddwell—Ruth Manseau enceed the show to the parodied "It's been a long time"... Mrs. Johnny Dawsons puppet number revealed lots of talent and this gal makes her own puppets to boot... Buddy Bligh owner of that fabulous home on Thunderbird where the pool enters the living room recited... Her theme concerned the ever present dangers of that middle age spread... June (Mrs. Ross Clark) in her drum majorette sequined costume "out-legged" Grable... Helen Kenaston, Joyce Singer, and Judith Howard rated plenty applause and laughter... Judith finalized the show in a black stockings short costume with a huge sign pinned to her "THIS IS THE END"... The chorus number headed by Maggie Hicks was terrific... This group of beauties, included Barbara Hinkle, June Clark, Jarlve Bogart, Jeannie Susella and Izzy Prom... The girls gaily decked out in the smartest numbers of the late twenties did the Charleston... Milton Hicks, Barney Hinkle, Ross Clark, Frank Bogart, Eddie Susella and Paul Prom proudly applauded their spouses... After "Show Time" we gathered around and Peggy Lester, Beth Fisher and Alice Hefferman "tried" the famous English Variety Number "Bell Bottom Trousers"... Enjoying the show and festivities... Grace Hanousek, Mrs. Harrison Fisher, Mrs. Ed. Reichert and her houseguest Mrs. Paul Wesco from Appleton, Wisconsin... Ollie and Lenore Morris from Oceanside... Mary and Phil Neary... Week-ending in Rancho Mirage... Margaret and Dr. Claude Church... Visiting Connie and Mill Gray... Miriam and Andy Anderson... Miriam's parents are owners of the famous "Knott's Berry Farm" recording artist, and had her own show in television for Citizens National Bank & Trust. On the same bill with Miss Norman, will be Jackie Kannon, with his new fashioned comedy, and Renee and his puppets; adding up to a sensational new show in the best Chi Chi tradition.

Just to stroll through the Desert Farmers Market on a "window" shopping tour is a thrill in itself. Here one may find all the wonderful things sought, some exotic item from across distant seas, hors d'oeuvres rarely seen on shelves, greeting cards for all occasions, delicious candies and gorgeous flowers in season, mouth watering barbecued meats to eat right there or take home. Even a pastrami sandwich and other delicatessen foods. And then, of course, there is the new concession for home made bread, cookies and French pastries. The American hot dog is there too for you to nibble on as you continue your tour and then to stop and taste delicious Mexican foods prepared right before your eyes. Also the dollar-saving Mayfair Market is located here.

Farmers Market

Desert Farmers Market Starts New Season with Many Added Concessions

Harry Ozonoff, managing director of Desert Farmers Market, has figuratively created a miracle in the re-organization of that famous shopping area with its opening for the current season.

The concessionaires presently located there display a wide variety of things to eat, to wear and to display, much that never has been shown at the Desert Farmers Market in its short career of two previous winter seasons.

Shoppers strolling through the lanes of this fabulous shopping center are enthralled by the many sights and delightfully aromatic scents that are wafted through the air from the food concessions.

The latest and perhaps the most expensive addition to the Desert Farmers Market's merchant family is Phill Kornblatt and his Kornblatt's bakery.

Kornblatt, with more than a $25,000 investment, has had years of experience as a continental baker. He has followed his trade in some of the foremost capitals of Europe. And as a result the edibles he produces are as varied in recipe form as the countries he has worked in and the cities of this nation. His specialties are a variety of breads, French pastries, bagels and cakes for all occasions. Most of all, Ozonoff, announced, Kornblatt uses nothing but butter in all of his baked goods and has sold practically all he produces each day.

Ozonoff too, is in business in the Desert Farmers Market, the operator of three concessionaire's booths. One is devoted to the sale of flowers and plants called the Desert Florist.

In its second season of operation, the Desert Florist is enjoying a flourishing business. The secret of its success centers around the price of its fresh daily cut flowers. All floral blossoms in season are delivered daily to the Desert Florist coupled with prices that are a great inducement to those who love floral arrangements in their homes.

Anita's Candy Shop is another Ozonoff enterprise featuring hand-dipped candies of delicious taste. Soon adjoining this shop will be a Parisian designed soda fountain also to be managed by Ozonoff.

Strolling further down the same Desert Farmers Market aisle is Orange Julius, a beverage originally developed in Southern California, and now in national demand. The American hot dog is also served at this spot as well as other delicables.

Bringing imaginary pictures of distant lands to those who have never visited them, are items from many foreign countries displayed in the "Seven Seas" booth. Here one will find items from Borneo, the South Sea Islands and other far-off places. Lou Levinson, the owner, world wide traveler, has rare collections of various beautiful things on display there. He also can tell the purchaser the story behind each of the items he displays for sale.

Pappy's Gourmet Corner, operated by Ed Landfield, longtime Villager, will cause one's mouth to water in taste anticipation for one of his tempting pastrami sandwiches or — he will take you into another corner of his end of the Desert Farmers Market and show you exotic foods, the likes of which have never before been on display here in Palm Springs. Hors d'oeuvres in wide variety many of them imported, the same with cookies, candies in jars and other fancy items.

Another new merchant in the Desert Farmers Market this year is the ReLaxit Corporation featuring body vibrators and the famed contour chairs. This new addition to the Market is gaining in rapid popularity.

The Taco House where one can watch the preparation of native Mexican and Spanish food is also one of the most popular concessions among Villagers and visitors. Food there can be consumed at one of the tables or taken home. The prices are more than reasonable.

Harry Alpert, who years ago operated an exclusive fur store in Palm Springs and still does in Los Angeles, is the operator of Conny's Barbecue. There one can order the best in all barbecued meats — and Harry says he dares just anyone to try his ribs, that is, the kind that is barbecued there. He also operates within his own booth a smoke oven where these meats are given that "good ol' hickory smoke" flavor. Then, of course, within the Desert Farmers Market is the dollar saving Mayfair Market with a huge variety of foods and its separate liquor department containing the best in beverages.

NEWEST STAR — Pat Crowley, Paramount's newest and brightest star will make a personal appearance during the world premiere of "Forever Female" at the Plaza theater Saturday. Miss Crowley stars in the picture with such other great motion picture artists as William Holden, Ginger Rogers and Paul Douglas. Other celebrities will also be present at the premiere showing of the motion picture which will also be televised over "pay-as-you-see" Television here in Palm Springs, also a first in the world.

Full Scale Movie Premiere for Village Saturday Night

Palm Canyon drive will look like Hollywood Boulevard Saturday night, when the lights, music, excitement and glamor of a full-scale movieland world premiere comes to Palm Springs for Paramount's high-powered, sophisticated comedy, "Forever Female."

The Plaza theater will be the center of all the activity with a special section of the street roped off for pedestrians to comfortably view the proceedings. A host of top film celebrities, including Pat Crowley, who plays a leading role with William Holden, Ginger Rogers and Paul Douglas in the picture, will attend the premiere. The stars will be interviewed over a coast-to-coast radio program in front of the theater before the picture starts.

Reserved tickets for the premiere are on sale at the Plaza Theater box office. A backstage Broadway atmosphere is the setting for "Forever Female" with William Holden playing the role of a young, idealistic playwright, Ginger Rogers, in a role said to be greater than her Academy

State Earmarks Funds to Speed Freeway to L.A.

Another step in eliminating the El Monte bottleneck on a four-lane non-stop freeway from the desert area to Los Angeles was taken Friday when the state division of highways earmarked $8,550,000 of its 1954-55 budget for the 3.9 mile stretch through that city.

Also in the budget are funds for the completion of the freeway through Colton and for grade separation projects at Archibald and Etiwanda avenues just east of Ontario.

Other freeway projects are now under construction.

When the above projects plus the freeway through Banning are completed, travel between the Los Angeles area and Palm Springs will be shortened by many minutes.

Mrs. Nesmith Dies Suddenly

Mrs. Florence A. Nesmith, 621 North Cahulla road, died at 2:15 p. m., Thursday, November 19, following a sudden heart attack.

Mrs. Nesmith called a local telephone operator, asking for aid, and the operator notified police, ambulance and doctors. The victim was rushed to Desert Hospital, and was pronounced dead on arrival.

A native of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Mrs. Nesmith had been a resident of California for 48 years and of Palm Springs for 17 years.

Survivors are her husband, Ralph A. Nesmith; four sisters, Mrs. Eleanor Babcock, Mrs. Helen Martin, Mrs. Frances Bradley, and Miss Martha Sowins, all of Los Angeles, and a sister-in-law Mrs. Josephine Sowins, also of Los Angeles.

Funeral services will be held in Los Angeles, and have been tentatively scheduled for Tuesday. Wiefels and Son Mortuary is in charge of local arrangements.

A. A. Anderson, Taken by Death

Village friends this week received word of the death of Arthur A. Anderson, 62, pioneer in the Columbia River tuna industry, who had been a regular Winter visitor here until he suffered a severe heart attack several years ago.

Anderson, a resident of Warrenton, Oregon, died November 6. He had been engaged in the fishing industry during his entire career, with his major company being the Columbia River Salmon Company.

Survivors are his widow, Emma, and one son, Arthur A. Anderson, Jr., both of Warrenton; and two brothers, David and Joseph W. Anderson, both of Astoria.

O'SHEA

due to natural causes, a heart attack.

O'Shea came to Palm Springs in 1948 and for the past three seasons was located at the North Palm Canyon drive address.

He was in the army from 1942 to 1945 and was later an independent consultant decorator with a shop in Beverly Hills before coming to the Village.

He participated in the decoration of scores of homes here and also several hotels including Sunset Towers and Howard Manor. He had long experience as a set designer, color consultant and furniture designer.

The only survivor is his mother, Mrs. Alice Barrett Pike of Lynn, Massachusetts.

A Rosary will be said at Wiefels and Sons Chapel tonight at 8 o'clock.

Burial will be in Palm Springs cemetery at 10 a. m. Tuesday with graveside services conducted by Father Michael Raymond O'Donohoe. Members of Kiwanis club will serve as pall bearers. O'Shea was president-elect of the club. Wiefels and Sons mortuary is in charge of the services.

Olsen and Johnson Show Pleases Large Audiences

"O Whotta Nite" is not only the name of the Olsen and Johnson comedy revue, staged in the Chi Chi Starlite Room Friday, Saturday and Sunday... it's what everyone said as the curtain fell on the hour-and-a-half-long revue.

And everyone agreed that Irwin Schuman had topped all previous efforts in booking these big-timers who have been a sensation all over the country. With all the unexpected shocks of an accident looking for a place to happen, Olsen and Johnson gave Chi Chi audiences a bang-up (literally) show, complete with chorus, fast-comedy and theatrical appeal. There was something going on every minute and it was like trying to watch a three-ring circus... you were afraid you might miss something.

Surprise topped surprise, joke capped joke, as the production, centered around two of the theatre's top comedians, raced on its merry way.

Gags galore and riotous situations are the background for a lively cast that expertly backs up those two accomplished stage stars, Olsen and Johnson.

Outstanding was gaminesque Beverly Dennis with her chorus girl song, and The Beachcombers with petite and shapely Natalie.

INDIANS BOP ELSINORE 33-0 TO GO INTO TIE FOR RCL CHAMPIONSHIP

A tie for the league title, but not the championship.

That's what happened to Coach Clare Ballagh's Indian gridders Friday night as they romped to an easy 33 to 0 win over the highly rated Elsinore team, and dropped the Tigers from title competition.

For Hemet, also, the ending with a six and one record by winning over Banning 19 to 0 Friday, takes the championship. This is the result of Riverside County League rules which state that when a tie occurs in final standings, the team that defeated the other during the season takes the title. And Palm Springs only defeat came at the hands of Hemet, 14 to 0.

COACH BALLAGH had predicted the win for his team, expressing no concern about the outcome early last week. His main worry was whether or not

Scores Friday

Palm Springs 33, Elsinore 0
Hemet 19, Banning 0
Coachella 34, Perris 6

Banning could defeat or tie Hemet and give the Indians the championship.

Palm Springs could do no wrong in running up its largest score of the season. It also was a moral victory for the squad as Elsinore had defeated Hemet during the season.

Marines Drop Nite Hawks by 33 to 18 Count

Scoring 16 points in the second quarter, Twenty-nine Palms Marines won an easy 33 to 18 victory over the Desert Nite Hawks in the league opener for both teams Wednesday evening.

The Nite Hawks had held a 6 to 5 first period edge, but fell behind at halftime 21 to 8. The final two quarters were even, with the Marines outscoring their opponents by only one point in each.

Duncan was high scorer for the Marines with 16 points, while Ray Roberts had five points and Bill Jones five for the Nite Hawks.

Second place was won by Gloria Fecht, Thunderbird club's Women's champion, who combined scores of 78 and 80 for the 36-hole play.

Mrs. McCullah had a disastrous first nine in the final round and ended with 159, tying Barbara Romack of Sacramento for third.

FIFTH PLACE went to Mrs. William Millar of Los Angeles Country Club with 160, on scores of 78-82.

Mrs. George Haneberg of Santa Ana, an S-handicap player, took low net honors with 149. She had tied with Mrs. McCullah for the gross lead at the end of 18 holes with a 77, but had an 88 on the final 18.

Mrs. Millar took second in low net with 152, and Mrs. M. Thornton third with 153.

PLAY ENDED for the 175 women golfers from clubs throughout Southern California on Wednesday afternoon.

In the evening, clubs represented participated in an "amateur" show, with each presenting an "act" with club members as participants.

Scheduled exhibition basketball game between Cravy's and Twenty-nine Palms Rotary Club quintet Thursday night was postponed, due to a gymnasium not being available, Howard Haddock, city recreation director, reported.

Cravy's Defeat Village Market to Even Score

Cravy's evened out their season record at one and one by scoring an impressive 35 to 20 win over the Village Market cagers Wednesday night.

The Cravy quintet took a 9 to 5 first quarter lead, and then put the game on ice in the second and third periods by leading 27 to 11.

Jack Morey of Village Market took game scoring honors with 13 points, and John Wade paced the winners with 11

Indian Football Squad Honored

Palm Springs Lions honored the Indian football squad at their weekly luncheon Thursday at the Chi Chi with August G. Kettmann, chairman for the day.

Following a brief talk by Coach Clare Ballagh, Kettmann conducted a football quiz which resulted in contributions to the club's milk fund when members were unable to answer the questions.

President Harold West announced that, because of Thanksgiving holiday next Thursday, there would be no meeting of the club.

Christian Science Churches to Hold Thanksgiving Eve

Thanksgiving Day services will be held in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

The service will include the reading of the Thanksgiving Proclamation of the President of the United States, or of the Governor of our State, or both.

Man's debt to God of joy and gratitude is emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon, The Golden Text from Revelation (7:12) reads, "Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever."

In a Scriptural citation, the Psalmist sings (107:8,9), "Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness."

"Are we really grateful for the good already received?" questions Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." She continues, "Then we shall avail ourselves of the blessings we have, and thus be fitted to receive more. Gratitude is much more than a verbal expression of thanks. Action expresses more gratitude than speech" (p. 3).

A period will be set aside for the giving of testimonies by Christian Scientists appropriate for the occasion.

support and approval of the campaign.

Letters will be sent to all sign companies asking their cooperation in not soliciting for new signs, and eventual elimination of all of them.

A LIST of advertisers who have signs on Highway 111 north of the Village, was sent to all members of the council, and lists of advertisers south of Palm Springs to the Steak Ranch, on Ramon road and Indian avenue, will also be sent in the near future. Letters requesting that the signs be removed will be sent by each group to each advertiser.

CITY MANAGER R. W. Peterson, reporting on progress to date, said that of 25 signs at the time of the survey on Highway 111, there have been four removed and two added, now leaving 23 on the roadway.

Mayor Boyd reported to the council on the current status of the city hall, and reiterated his warning made at the city council meeting last week, that if permanent city buildings were not constructed at this time, when money is available in the special fund, it never would be a reality.

"AFTER 15 YEARS of incorporation, it is time for the city to have its own permanent home," the mayor said.

William Dunkerley, on behalf of the Palm Springs Community

Chest, told the council about the United Fund appeal which is under discussion, and said that complete information would be sent to each organization for consideration in the near future.

The council voted to meet next in January, omitting the December session because of the holidays.

Interesting personality at The Tennis Club opening Friday night was General William Irvine of Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio... who was here for a short vacation... The General, who was second in command in the South Pacific during World War II, was the dinner guest of Ed and Lorraine Hogan... Also in their party were the Joseph Pawlings, and Mrs. Maxine Gerhart of Ohio and Palm Springs...

Bob Howard came up to me Wednesday evening... as I was admiring the hors d'oeuvre table at the reception for Father O'Connor... and asked "Which are the 'pedicures'?"... Andrea said we donated them... Of course, it was the plate of beautiful petit fours... he was wisecracking about...

Mrs. Spencer Tracy and daughter Susie are at the Racquet Club... for a week or so... for some desert sunshine...

Mrs. Eleanor Kane, of 1476 San Lorenzo, is expecting her daughter and son-in-law, the Robert A. Halls of Los Angeles... to spend Thanksgiving with her... Other guests will be the William Ottos of Los Angeles...

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Dollard entertained at a small cocktail-supper party... at their ranch home near Tamarisk Saturday night... however, the week-end houseguests... the Al Lovelands and Bradley Geists of La Jolla... Mrs. Dollard's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dines Nelson of Tucson, arrive today... for a short visit...

On Thanksgiving

The Harold Murphys are entertaining at Balboa Bay Club on Thanksgiving... a dozen of their Newport Beach friends... including the Ken Kendalls owners of the Balboa Bay Club... Invitations are out for the Murphy's black tie party... "Drink, dine and dance with the Murphys"... on November 28... Two dozen are expected to attend this party which will be the first in the newly-reddecorated Viennese Room at The Tennis Club...

Reception Pays Tribute Fr. O'Connor

Parishioners, friends and Villagers who have come to know and love Father Michael O'Connor during the 15 years he served as pastor of Our Lady of Solitude Catholic church, gathered at the World Wars Memorial hall Wednesday evening to bid him farewell and wish him well in his work in San Diego.

A short and informal program was emceed by William Gargan. First of the speakers, Mayor Florian Boyd, said simply, "The latchstring will always be out for you in Palm Springs, Father Mike" and Msgr. John Powers, who assumes the pastorate of Our Lady of Solitude, lauded Father O'Connor's work here and wished him well in his new parish.

Joe Woods sang "Danny Boy" and "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," and a gift, voluntary contributions from friends and well-wishers, was presented to Father O'Connor by William Gargan, saying "gratitude, love and respect go with you."

Coffee and tea were served with an elaborate spread of hors d'oeuvres, and five beautiful floral arrangements adorned the long tables.

The stage had been arranged like a garden, with shrubs, small trees and flowers. A huge bouquet of white chrysanthemums and red berries was arranged in a cross motif, a theme carried out in the table bouquets, too.

The general committee in charge of the reception included Helen Kenaston, Andrea Howard, Joan McManus, Virginia Farrell, Alice Guthrie, Nora Simpson and Henrietta Smith. Presiding at the tea tables were Evelyn Purcell, Seba Schilling, Margaret Krysan and Gertrude Walker.

Others assisting were Lee Muller, Mary Sitter, Peggy McCoy, Marion Elcher, Norma Smith, Emily Reche, Joan Selman, Mary Jo Wood, Eleanor Haddock and Maggie Russell.

Covina. Mrs. Hazel Stachler and Mrs. Marie Jay are acting as hostesses for the club this year and invite all visiting Rotary Anns to meet with them for luncheon in the newly-decorated Viennese Room at The Tennis Club Wednesday at 12:15 p.m.

Several projects were discussed at the first meeting and one will be selected on Wednesday.

Michael Raymond O'Donohue, Mrs. Walter McManus, Andrea Leeds Howard, Father O'Connor, Mayor Florian Boyd, Mrs. Jack Kenaston, William Gargan and Msgr. John Powers.

The Ranch to Stage Revue of Smart Resort Fashions

"Have you ever seen a dream walking?... or modeling?" ask the invitations that go out today for the style show to be staged at Ned Crawford's The Ranch on November 28.

The invitation then lists the seven lovelies who will model cloths from Alpha Sportsweat, the new shop that has come here from Arizona. They are Jimmy Rogers, Bernard, Fran Goodrich, Louise Warshaw, Bettye Herbert, Taylor Dunlevie, Mary Hurrell and Blake Corliss. Charlie Harrison of Caroline Leonetti's, will commentate the show which starts at 9 p. m. It will feature squaw dresses, reversible outfits, treader pants, and other clothes particularly suited to resort wear.

There will be no tickets sold for the show, and no cover charge or minimum. Manager Ned Crawford announced today.

D.A.R. Rummage Sale is Success

Mrs. Frederick Watson, Regent of the D. A. R., said this week that the first D. A. R. rummage sale was highly successful and cleared around $300.

In thanking The Desert Sun for assisting them in publicizing the affair, the donors who contributed articles, and the members who shared in the work, Mrs. Watson announced that unsold articles were either

To Exchange Wedding Vows Thanksgiving

On Thanksgiving Day Lucia Johnson, daughter of the Carl Johnsons of East Aurora, New York, will become the bride of Thomas William Griffith, son of the Ted Griffiths of 2101 Rim road.

Around 150 friends and relatives have been invited to attend the wedding, which will be held in the Palm Springs Community Church at two o'clock, with Rev. Bertram B. Weatherall officiating.

The reception will be held in the Woman's clubhouse. Miss Johnson, an alumnus of Purdue University, where she majored in music, is a department to Korea or given to the Salvation Army.

Mrs. Josephine McCauley, ways and means chairman, and Elinor Bosler, who was in charge of the pick-up, assisted with the sale.

ment head in the Long Beach branch of the Bank of America. The bridegroom-to-be, whose family have been Villagers for 30 years, went through the Palm Springs schools and graduated in engineering from the University of New Mexico. He is on the executive staff at Douglas Aircraft in Long Beach, and the young couple will make their home in that city.

Due to illness in the family, the bride's parents will be unable to come West for the wedding.

Six Members Inducted by Auxiliary

Six new members were inducted into the Owen Coffman Unit 519 of the American Legion Auxiliary on Tuesday night.

The impressive ceremony included instruction in the significance and meaning of membership in the organization. President Marian Lineau, assisted by other officers, conducted the ceremony which accepted the following new members: Mesdames Victoria Van Pelt, Ruth Scharf, Theresa Potter, Dorothy Massey, Daisy Ude and Lillian Allen.

Each one was given an Auxiliary membership pin, Unit and Department constitution and by-laws, and a small American flag.

Interesting reports were given by the Child Welfare and Rehabilitation committee chairmen with an outline of plans to aid those in need during the coming Christmas season.

The next regular meeting will be December 1, at 8 p. m., Wars Memorial building.

Palm Springs Civic Chorus Presents "Requiem" Tonight

Scheduled for performance this evening at 8 p. m. at the Jewish Community Center is the Brahms "German Requiem" sung by the Palm Springs Civic Chorus under the direction of Harry Tomlinson, with Christine Tomlinson at the organ. This work, which will be sung in English, is new to the repertoire of the Chorus, and promises to give music lovers an opportunity to hear a great work of music sung in the fresh and vital manner justifiably expected of the Civic Chorus.

Soloists tonight will be Merwyn Dant, bass-baritone; and Anne Shaw Price, soprano. Winning a contest sponsored by the Texas Oil company in 1935 brought Dant from his boyhood home in Portland, Oregon, to Los Angeles. Besides frequent appearances on radio and television and in films, Dant is called upon to sing in other cities at a moment's notice because of his excellently polished Oratorio repertoire. He has also sung in Bach Festivals throughout the West.

Alfred Frankenstein, Music Critic of the San Francisco Chronicle says "Mr. Dant combines the artistry of the exacting musician with the contagious style of a buoyant personality and a keenly developed dramatic sense."

"A perfectly placed voice, excellently trained" is the opinion of Lee Pattison, head of the Scripps College department of music, when speaking of Anne Shaw Price. She is a graduate of Pomona College, and has studied with Paul Althouse in New York, Hans Maag in Lima, Peru; and Mme. Frederic Zweig in Los Angeles. She was soloist for the Stanford University Bach Festival in 1950, and has sung with the Los Angeles Philharmonic, the San Diego Symphony, and the Lima (Peru) Philharmonic. Further solo work has been done with the Robert Shaw Chorale and the Roger Wagner Chorale. When her brother, Robert Shaw conducted the San Diego Symphony in July of 1953, she was his soloist. Commenting on this performance, the San Diego Tribune says "Anne Shaw Price sang the extremely difficult solo (Knoxville, Summer 1915" by Samuel Barber) with rare beauty of tone, coupled with astonishing skill and expression."

Preceding the singing of the "Requiem" there will be a short organ recital by Fred Barnes. Barnes has served as organist in a number of large churches in the Los Angeles area, and has studied with Edouard Nies-Berger, world famous French organist. His program will include works of Bach, Brahms, and others. He will play the special Baldwin Organ brought to the Community Center especially for this evening's concert. Playing the organ for the "Requiem" will be Christine Tomlinson, accompanist for the Chorus. She will be remembered for her outstanding playing for the "Elijah" last season.

Tickets for the performance may be obtained at the door. Seats are reserved for holders of season tickets.

Handknit Elegance Modeled at Diane's Dinner Show

"Anyone for tennis?" was the intriguing name of the white boucle-with-silver sports outfit that opened the Diane Handknit show at El Mirador Tuesday night.

It was modeled by Ann Francis, lovely young 20th Century Fox starlet, who is currently making a film with Jimmy Cagney "Lion in the Streets."

Diane, herself, commented the dinner showing of handknit elegance modeled by some of Los Angeles top mannequins.

Rochelle, always a favorite at Palm Springs' style shows, modeled the first of the Fiesta group, a stunning navy blue with white polka dots. Other outstanding gowns worn by her, were the aqua with mink-trimmed peplum, a white beaded gown with scalloped hem, and the "Happy Traveler," non-crushable and practically weightless.

Charlie Harrison, of the Caroline Leonetti shop, was one of the most attractive of the models and looked particularly lovely in a two-piece metallic beige with pleated skirt.

Pat Crowley, who is under contract to Paramount and plays a role in "Forever Female" which will be the first Tele-meter picture, modeled several numbers, including a red, white and blue plaid, the white, two-piece "Jungle" dress, and an off-the-shoulder, beaded dress of Kelly green. She was especially lovely in a black organza ribbon dress, one of the newest things in the Diane show.

Other unforgettable gowns were the sapphire metallic with gray fox trim, the white dentelle strapless, and the pink over-all beaded.

Eddie LeBaron's orchestra provided background music for the beautiful show.

Mrs. E. C. Houghton was hostess to a dinner group, which included her houseguest Mrs. Clarence Saunders of Pontiac, Mrs. William Reichel, Marilou Knecht, Alta Wood, Fay Neal, and Hildy Crawford.

Vic Petit, Mrs. Catherine Crosby (Bing's mother), Mrs. James Hendricks and Mrs. William Perlberg were a foursome. Among the guests at the Rudi Siders' table was Capt. Wally Berry, first of the POW's to visit Palm Springs.

At a no-host table were Mesdames William Rashall, Jack Freeman, Albert Bergman, Sal Allesandro, Steve Golden, Laura Brown, Dan Stinch and Ben Zeisel.

Beautiful El Mirador Room was well-filled for the show, and the dinner guests enjoyed a dinner which had squab stuffed with wild rice as the entree.

Luncheon is Farewell to Mrs. Bergman

The Albert Bergmans are moving to Los Angeles next Sunday, and a luncheon given Thursday by Mrs. Dan Stith was in the nature of a farewell party for Mrs. Bergman.

About 24 of her closest friends were invited to the luncheon which was served on the lawn at the Stith home at 1428 El Alameda.

A horn of plenty, spiced bright fruits and nuts on the table, which was laden with turkey and accompanying dishes.

A joint gift from the guests, of three pieces of luggage, was presented to Mrs. Bergman.

'Discipline' is Topic for Mothers Club

A group discussion on child discipline featured the monthly meeting of Frances Stevens Kindergarten Mothers Club, with Mrs. Jean Churchwell, chairman of the club, leading the discussion.

During the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Joline Pospesil and Mrs. Claudia Brown.

The next meeting of the group will be on December 17, at 3:15 p. m., when a special program will be presented.

Elks Women's Group to Stage Social Tuesday

Mrs. Gordon Krysan, temporary chairman of the women's organization affiliated with Palm Springs Lodge No. 1905 of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, announced that an old fashioned Box Social will be held at the Elks Lodge on Highway 111 tomorrow night at 7 o'clock. All Elks and their families and friends are invited to attend.

Additional entertainment will be provided after dinner.

All proceeds from the auction of boxes will be used to buy Christmas presents for the children in this area afflicted with cerebral palsy.

Those desiring further information concerning the affair may call any of the women on the arrangements committee, to wit: Mesdames William Olsen, Esther Gilbert, William Brady, Don Gillespie, Duane Stachler, Max Korngute, Charles Valentino, Otto Grelson, Sam Black, Harold Smith, Pat Cohen, Louis Kraft, James Fry, and Lee Gorce.

OESTA Club Fashion Show Presents Resort Styles

Presenting fashions from six smart Palm Springs shops, the OESTA club luncheon in Chi Chi Starlite Room Wednesday was attended by 124, including a large number of out-of-town guests.

A spray arrangement of large yellow chrysanthemums with tapers adorned the head table, where president Loleta Waller presided.

Among the honored guests introduced by Mrs. Waller were: Dr. Georgiana Raymond, who is just completing her year as Worthy Matron of Eastern Star; Mrs. Josephine McCauley, Junior Worthy Matron; Mrs. Florence Murphy, first Worthy Matron; D. B. Carlin, president of the Palm Springs Shrine Club and first Worthy Patron; Harold Murphy, past Worthy Patron; Katherine Feigler, Past Grand Matron of the State of Oregon; and officers of the OESTA Club.

George Beebe of the Beebe shop, did a capable job of commenting the show. Models were Keta Boyer for Beebe's, Carole Cameron and Tani Boyle for Beachcombers, Marge Ealagh and Jimmy Rogers Bernard for Marge Riley's, Marge Pawling for Palm Springs Hand Print Shop, Lynn Jennings for George Weil Fashions, Wilma Williamson for Casual-Aire.

Through the courtesy of Irwin Schumann, the program included two acts from the Chi Chi show.

Fern White was general chairman for the luncheon. Election of officers will feature the next meeting of OESTA Club, which will be December 10 at the Masonic Temple.

Fabulous Oasis

whose postwar growth — both in population and telephones — has been substantial

HIGHLIGHTS OF PROGRESS Since 1945

- Increase in population — 45 per cent
- Increase in number of telephones — 236 per cent
- Increase in plant investment — 437 per cent

(Nearly $2-million are now invested in the telephone facilities required to serve the Palm Springs District. An additional $4-million are scheduled to be spent in 1954 for further expansion and improvement.)

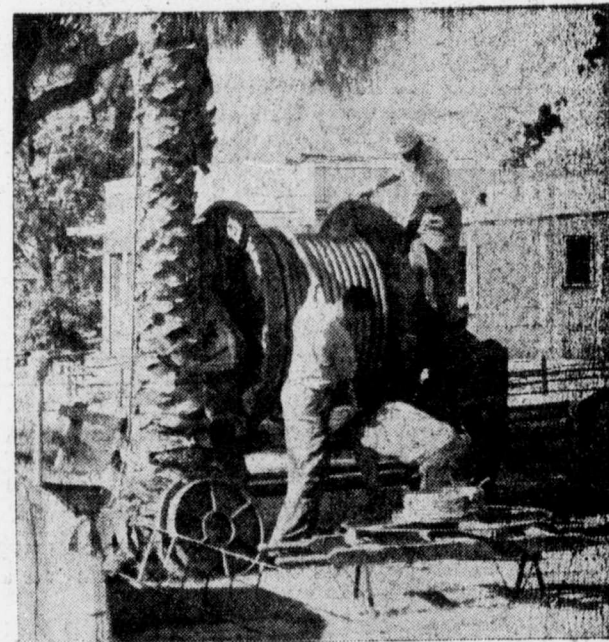

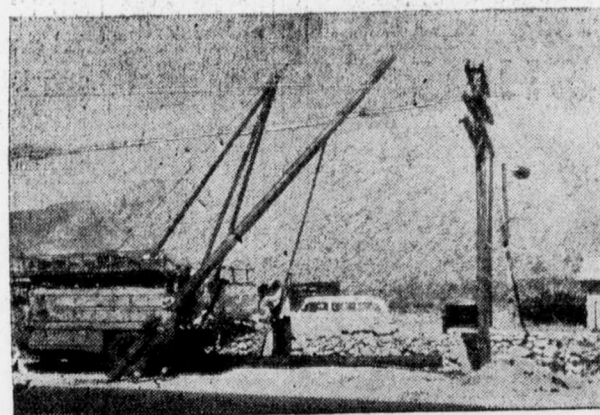

Because of its own peculiar seductiveness Palm Springs attracts people from everywhere and during the last few years this fabulous city in the sun has grown as rapidly as the rest of the expanding West... creating a tremendous demand for telephone service which, as you can see by the figures above, is being provided at a fast rate. Note that the increase in telephones far outstrips the increase in population.

Before a telephone can operate it must be linked to an amazing aggregation of extremely complex apparatus in the central office, expensive equipment custom-made to meet the specific requirements of the particular exchange.

Not only are company engineers busy on current central office development but they are also busy on future planning for national toll dialing, a telephone technique which will enable subscribers to dial directly almost any city in the country.

And before a telephone can be linked to central office equipment it must first be connected to an intricate outdoor network of cables, wires, poles and conduits, a far-flung web representing a large investment in material, labor and time. Crews are constantly at work enlarging this great outdoor web to meet the requirements of this expanding desert area.

Miles of cable are used today in outside plant construction. Since cable consists of a heavy sheath of lead encasing pairs of copper wires it is expensive equipment and men who handle it must be trained experts in this branch of telephone plant construction. And because of the size and type of cable required to meet today's increased demand for service, much of it must be placed in conduits underground.

Pet Owners League Leader Continues Her Work Here

Beth Paddock, vice president of the Pet Owners Protective League of Los Angeles, has returned to the Village and is continuing her League work here.

One thousand Southland residents are members of the Protective League, with Estelle Taylor as president. Funds are raised mainly by various civic functions, such as sponsoring a dog show at the Miramar Hotel, a dog fashion show at Ciro's, and bazaars.

Main purpose of the organization is finding homes for pets, to keep them from going to city dog pounds.

Mrs. Paddock is now boarding about 11 dogs and is attempting to find homes for them. Requirements for prospective owners are a good home, interest in dogs, and a fenced yard.

There is no charge for either the person wishing to place his dog elsewhere, or the new owner.

Anyone interested with aiding in this work, or in acquiring a new pet, is asked to call Mrs. Paddock at 4849.

Villagers' Views on Village Affairs

URGES BARRICADES

I noticed in the November 16 issue of The Desert Sun a short notice about the unfortunate mishap during the Western Week Parade. I was particularly interested in the statement of witnesses to the effect that "the youth was standing by the side of the street—when the horse went out of control."

I was standing at the curb in front of the Village Pharmacy and saw the whole thing happen and, in my opinion, the quoted statement does not cover the situation and it is not at all fair to the rider.

There were scores of children not escorted by adults who continually left the curb and crowded into the street. The traffic patrolman assigned to that intersection stood calmly nearby making no attempt to keep these children on the curb. Add to this the fact that a small dog belonging to one of the onlookers dashed out occasionally to snap at the heels of the passing horses. More than one rider could attest to having difficulty on that score.

There must be more witnesses who can attest to the fact that the child was hit, not on the curb—but in the street, in the line of march.

Certainly in Western town it is inconceivable that people can overlook the fact that horses are nervous and excitable animals which often do not take kindly to the idea of parading in orderly fashion down a strange street, accompanied by strange noises and numerous distractions.

I suggest that the Village furnish for the congested areas adequate and alert police surveillance and wooden police barriers of the type used at parades in New York City to prevent future accidents.

Your parades are well organized and a great credit to the Village. Why let unnecessary incidents mar the record?

Menus

Menus to be served in cafeterias of the Palm Springs school district this week follow:

MONDAY—Meat loaf, Buttered corn, Lettuce and tomato salad, French bread with f. m., Molded fruit gelatine, Apple sauce, Milk.

TUESDAY—Escalloped potatoes with meat, Spinach with lemon wedge, Carrot sticks, Wholewheat bread with f. m., Apple sauce, Milk.

WEDNESDAY—Turkey pie with vegetables, Cranberry sauce, Celery sticks, Hot buttered buns, Cake with pineapple frosting, Milk.

E. L. Hartman, 1563 South Palm Canyon drive, reported to police Wednesday the loss of his wallet, containing $180 in cash, and identification cards.

85,000 pheasants, at a cost of $100,000 by many.

This is another of the brain children, borne by our Fish and Game Commission, and implemented by their department. It indicates ill-advice by someone. It is one of many ill-advised decisions that they have made chest for 5% of the population that like it. It concerns expenditure the 95% of us must bear and of a large amount of state money and time that could better be used by your community decisions that they have made chest, your local hospital, or for cancer research.

There seems to be no end to the devices that can be arranged to add to the already large total of pain and suffering among living things, so many unnecessary, and so many which seem to originate in the chambers of the Fish and Game Commission. The 500 dead bodies of the victims of the last hunting season, with ten states that keep no record, should be added. And the fact that there were as many casualties from hunting REPORTED as were suffered by the Navy and Marine Corps in Korea for an equivalent time. These facts cannot be swept under the carpet.
